Book: Du Iz Tak? (E LL)

Reviewed by Evey Christensen (1st grade)

This book is amazing because you can make up the story. There are words but they don't make sense because the author made up the words himself! So you have to think about what the words would sound like, what they mean and how the pictures help us understand the words and the story. The pictures have a lot of details and you will need to read and look at this book more than once to understand it. You have to

Book: Like Magic (FIC VIC)

Reviewed by Afnaan Jama (5th grade)

Do you like mysteries? If you do, you should read this book about three girls who connect through a mysterious library book. Each chapter changes perspective between the three friends, Grace, Jada and Malia. You will love seeing how these friends connect in cool and unexpected ways. Will they ever meet face to face? Find out by reading this book!

Book: Escape by Night (FIC MYE)
Reviewed by Salma Abdi (5th grade)

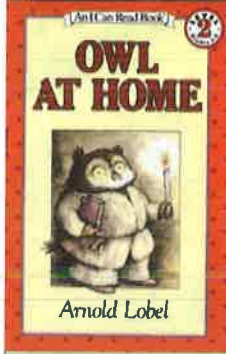

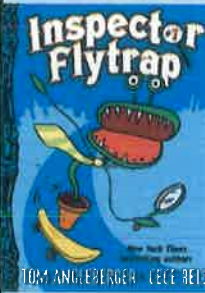

Are you interested in the Civil War? If you are, this book will give you a new way to learn about it. The story is set in a Georgia town where there is a military hospital with a soldier inside who is hiding a secret. Tommy, a young boy, finds out the soldier's secret and how dangerous it is. If you like adventures and history, you should read this book!

Book: Inspector Flytrap (FIC ANG)

Reviewed by Davon Sisomphan (4th grade)

If you love mysteries, this is the book for you! The detective is sure to make you laugh because he is a talking Venus Flytrap! When someone steals a talking rose, Inspector flytrap and his assistant have to chase after them on a skateboard. There are illustrations on every page that help the reader imagine what's happening. I highly recommend this book!

Book: Owl at Home (E LOB)

Reviewed by Ilham Alshabakji

Owl is really scared because he's home alone at night and he hears strange noises. Owl is scared, but you will laugh when you see what Owl is really scared of. The pictures make the story even better and funnier. They will also help readers find the main idea. You should read this book for a good laugh and if you like stories about owls!
