Book: Gems: Nature's Jewels: Diamonds
(553.82 ETH)

Reviewed by Maya Killian and Vada Wood
(3rd grade)

Did you know that diamonds are the hardest gem in the world? In the book Diamonds you will learn how and where they are found and how they are made into jewelry. You'll also discover many other incredible facts about diamonds. There are excellent photographs that show the whole process of diamonds getting found and made into jewels. If you are interested, this series includes many different gem books. We highly recommend this series!

Book: Winter is Coming (E JOH)

Reviewed by Carolyn Fleischer & Madison Johnson
(3rd grade)

If you like nature and art, this is the book for you! In this picture book, a young girl sits on a platform in a tree observing and sketching animals getting ready for winter. Watching the animals closely, she describes them and makes you feel like you are right there. The illustrations are very colorful. You will need to look closely to see the different animals in the pictures and you may need to look closely to see the girl! We highly recommend this book!

Book: Pete the Cat and the Missing Cupcakes (E DEA)

Reviewed by Caden Hanson (2nd grade)

One day, Pet the Cat made cupcakes. But when he left the cupcakes on the windowsill, the cupcakes began to disappear by twos. Who took the cupcakes? Look for clues in the pictures and see if you can figure out who it is. I highly recommend this book for readers who like mysteries, Pete the Cat and cupcakes!

Book: A Tale Dark & Grimm (FIC GID)

Reviewed by Rory Hendrickson (5th grade)

Beware! This is not your basic fairy tale. Book I in this series twists Hansel and Gretel into a new morbid tale. Gidwitz darkens the tale with a cursed princess, talking stars, dragon kings and talking ravens. This series is an excellent choice for readers who like Grimm's Fairy Tales, A Series of Unfortunate Events or Harry Potter.
