Book: Black Beauty Stolen! (ER HIL)

Reviewed by Maddox Hay (2nd grade)

This book is a horse story with a mystery. When Black Beauty is kidnapped by a cruel and powerful man, her owner has to find her before it's too late. You won't be able to put this book down until you are finished with it. The illustrations add adventure to the story. I highly recommend this book!

Book: Goddess Girls series (FIC HOL)

Reviewed by Shullamite Nathaniel (2nd grade)

If you like Greek myths and especially the goddesses, you will love this series. Each book is a wonderful story of a goddess, how she grew up and her special powers. Even though the stories are about goddesses, we can still relate to them and learn from how they fix their problems. The stories are all different, but they are all amazing. I highly recommend this series.

Book: El Deafo (GN 741.5 BEL)

Reviewed by Iham Alshabakji & Daniella Daire (5th grade)

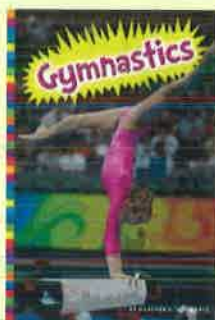

When Cece goes deaf, everything changes. She has to change schools, learn sign language and make new friends. We might not all have hearing aids, but we all know how it feels not to fit in. This inspiring story shows us that we don't have to be afraid of what other people think and it shows the power of friendship to bring people into a community. The story makes us ask what we would do if we were Cece Bell. We highly recommend this book!

Book: Gymnastics (796.44 MOR)

Reviewed by Lexie Jacobs (2nd grade)

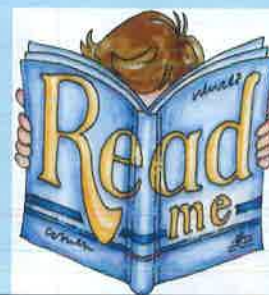

Did you know that until 1928 girls weren't allowed to compete in gymnastics, only the boys could? This book tells about the history of gymnastics and about top gymnasts. The photographs make you feel as if you are right there watching the gymnasts making history. If you love gymnastics, you should read this book!

Book: Sam Gets Lost

Reviewed by Oliver Workman (3rd grade)

Have you ever lost a dog? This book is about a dog named Sam who jumps out of a car and gets lost. Sam is nervous because he can't find his owners. His owners are nervous because they thought Sam was in the car, but he isn't. You will love Sam and you will not be able to stop reading until you get to the end. I recommend this book!
